A one-pager book report is a book report all on one page! It is a way of responding to a book on one piece of paper. It represents your own written and graphic interpretation of what you have read. In this report, you will show facts and information about the book, as well as creating a visual representation of it.

Directions:

- Arrange the following required elements on the page
 - o Title and author of the book (in the box on top)
 - o Include a recommendation of what you read. (in the star in the middle)
 - o In the four boxes around the star, choose FOUR of the following prompts:
 - Connections between the book and your life/ the world around you
 - If you could give any gift to the main character, what would it be? Why?
 - Write a fortune cookie message for one of the characters in your book. Why would this character need this advice or wisdom?
 - Which character do you most identify with in the novel? Why?
 - Illustrate an important scene. Why is this scene important?
 - What was your favorite part of the story?
 - Create a different ending for the story
 - How would you have solved the main conflict in the story if you were the characters?
 - Could the story take place as it is on a deserted island? Why or why not?
 - o In the border around the paper, represent the key themes/ messages from what you read. What did you learn for your own life? What message does the story send?

Use color pens or markers to create a more pleasing visual and to symbolize different things

Be creative and thoughtful. It is meant to be a challenge to truly represent your experience of a book in such a small space.

Try to add visual representations where possible.

Make sure to fill the entire page with words or images!
